

At G7 Synergon, we understand that safety is of primary concern during all phases of clinical research. Our medical writers provide medical review and management of clinical trial activities for our clients. All our

Medical Writers are physicians and therapeutic specialists, having extensive training and experience across a wide range of therapeutic areas and technological platforms. Our Medical Writing team can work independently or become fully embedded into the Sponsor's teams.

Medical Writing Services include:

- Generation of medical queries
- Study decisions based on inclusion/exclusion criteria, dosing schedules, concomitant medications, rescue medications
- Preparation and evaluation of protocol
- Preparation and evaluation of patient information sheet and informed consent form
- Preparation and evaluation of investigator's brochure
- Preparation and evaluation of manuscript, writing monographs
- Evaluation of case report forms
- Preparation and evaluation of clinical study report
- Preparation and evaluation of clinical trial registry summary
- Preparation of poster presentations
- Preparation of abstracts
- Literature reviews and summaries
- Maintain the Quality Control of medical writing deliverables
- Medical Monitoring visit